CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Preamble

Pursuant to s.27 of the Society Act (BC), “A director of a society who is, directly or indirectly, interested in a proposed contract or transaction with the society must disclose fully and promptly the nature and extent of the interest to each of the other directors.”

In addition to the ongoing requirement to disclose conflicts of interest during the term of your appointment, you are required to complete this Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement as a pre-condition to your appointment as a director of the Coast Economic Development Society (the “Society”).

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

A conflict of interest arises where you have an interest which conflicts (or might conflict, or might be perceived to conflict) with the interests of the Society.

A conflict of interest may take a number of forms. It may be financial or non-financial. It may be direct or indirect. It may be professional or family related.

A conflict of interest may arise from directorships or other employment; interests in business enterprises or professional practices; share ownership; beneficial interests in trusts; existing professional or personal associations with the Society; professional associations or relationships with other organizations; personal associations with other groups or organizations; or family relationships.

DISCLOSURE

1. A direct or indirect conflict with my duty as a director of the Society may arise because:
 - a) I, or my associates¹, hold the following offices (appointed or elected):

¹ "associate" of a person means any person closely connected by blood or otherwise including, but not limited to, a spouse (including common-law spouse), parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild.
